

Communication is key to problem solving. As a site representative, you are a liaison between the Etiwanda Teacher Association and your school site. To ensure that you feel confident in addressing teacher concerns at your site, this flow chart has been created to assist you in guiding teachers and determine the most appropriate steps to a resolution.

